

I'm writing to register my belief that is wholly inappropriate for Sinclair Broadcasting to use their media position to advance a political cause. Especially right around election time. Documentaries are one thing, but political advocacy is another. There's a reason that the FCC and FEC exist--to make sure that democracy remains fair!